

Year 5 RSE My Rights and Responsibilities Knowledge Organiser

Responsibility: To share online information responsibly.

Once information is shared online, it cannot be unshared.

You cannot be certain that it will not be shared further without your permission.

If you share anything online, you should assume that it will be shared further. Be very careful what you choose to share!

You should not share anyone's information without their permission.

